Chippewa Falls Area Unified School District is pleased to announce 2 new Elementary School Principals for the 2024-2025 school year.

Southview Elementary School's new Principal is Janet Goodman. Mrs. Goodman brings a wealth of experience to this role, having served as a Special Education Teacher, General Education Classroom Teacher, Assistant Principal at CFAUSD's Jim Falls Elementary School, and the district's Summer School Principal.

Mrs. Goodman will continue to build strong partnerships among students, educators, families, and the wider community, with the goal of helping each child achieve their highest potential. Her positive, dependable, and organized approach to leadership will contribute to creating an environment where all learners can grow into kind, successful individuals.

Jim Falls Elementary School will be led by new Principal Kari Koenig. Mrs. Koenig brings a wealth of experience to this role, having served as a Classroom Teacher, Special Education Teacher, Elementary Interim Principal, and Assistant Principal.

Mrs. Koenig is dedicated to building strong relationships with students, staff, and families to ensure every child reaches their full potential. We welcome Mrs. Koenig to her new role at Jim Falls Elementary School.

The District warmly welcomes both Mrs. Goodman and Mrs. Koenig to their new roles. Their combined expertise in special education, general education, and administrative leadership will greatly benefit our schools. We are confident that their commitment to collaborative teamwork, life-long learning, and implementing innovative curriculum and instructional strategies will provide high-quality educational leadership to our students and contribute to the continued success of our district.
