

Welcome

to

3rd Grade!

Literacy

- Reading, Language Arts, & Spelling
 - Houghton Mifflin Harcourt textbook
 - Typical homework:
 - Read story ALoud every other Tuesday
 - Reading/writing log - should read 10-15 and write 5-10 minutes (4 times a week)
 - Selection test every other Friday
 - Spelling Scholar
 - Learning and applying spelling rules and patterns
- Guided Reading
 - Starts late September
 - Students given instruction based on their reading ability

Math

- BRIDGES
- Homework will come home periodically
 - If there are “challenge” problems, students should attempt to solve them, but please remember they are challenge problems for a reason. 😊
- Focus:
 - Multiply numbers from 0 to 10 with fluency
 - Multiply with numbers greater than 10
 - Add and subtract with numbers to 1,000
 - Work with unit fractions (fractions with a 1 in the numerator like $\frac{1}{3}$ and $\frac{1}{6}$) and add and subtract fractions
 - Explore division
- Bridges has a family support resource with tons of information!
 - <https://www.mathlearningcenter.org/families/bridges2>

#TEAMHillcrest

- Quiet Voices
- Walking Feet
- Keep Your Area Clean
- Calm Body

- These are the 4 common expectations that Hillcrest will be using this year

Rest & Relaxation

- On Friday afternoons, we will have R & R.
- Your child will earn R & R minutes if:
 - He/she has completed all of his/her classwork and homework.
 - He/she has not received any minors or majors for discipline issues.
- If your child is not participating, he/she will be finishing up any work or reading a book at his/her desk.
- This is a nice, relaxing way to end the school week! Every week starts over, so if your child misses R & R one week, they can earn it back the next. 😊

Report Cards

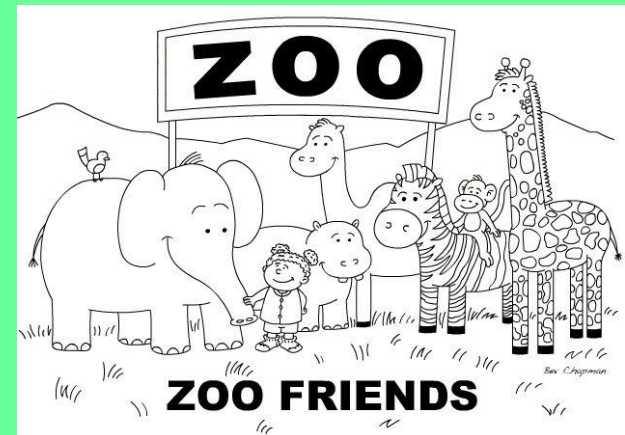

- 3rd grade uses a 3-Point system
 - 3 = Meeting end of grade level expectations
 - 2 = Progressing at the expected rate of growth
 - 1 = Developing the skills required for grade level expectations
- Report cards will be done by semesters
- Reports cards will be sent home electronically

Grades/Friday Feedback

- When I grade assignments/tests, I put 1 of the following at the top:
 - + (what used to be considered an A)
 - OK (what used to be considered a B or C)
 - (what used to be considered a D or F)
- Every Friday, all graded papers for the week will come home with a cover sheet labeled “Friday Feedback”

Field Trips

- MN Zoo or Como Park Zoo
 - to be determined
- Parents chaperoning will need to fill out volunteer forms from the office at least 2 weeks prior to helping.

Conferences

- November 5, 3:00-7:00pm Conferences
- November 7, 3:00-7:00pm Conferences
- February 18, 3:00-7:00pm Conferences
- February 20, 3:00-7:00pm Conferences

Treats for parties

- We have a student with a peanut allergy, so we are a “nut free” classroom. We also have a student with a gluten allergy. Please be conscious when sending treats. Thank you!

Seesaw

- Please connect to Seesaw!
- You will be able to see pictures and videos of various learning activities that your child is doing in class!

Scholastic Book Club

- Every month I will be sending home Scholastic book orders. You can order online using our class code H8LWT, or you can order using the paper form by sending it back to school with a check made out to Scholastic.
- Also, every month Scholastic has a $1 book special. I was fortunate to get sponsors for all of the students in my class, so every month your child will receive a free book!! 😊
